In an important battle not just for himself but for First Amendment supporters all over America Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai was given a historic victory. This victory will hopefully become one of many that serves as a historic precedent in protecting your First Amendment rights as well as my own. This important monumental battle over the First Amendment started over a month ago when the city of Cambridge, Massachusetts fired the first shot. On April 5 of this year the city threatened to fine Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai 300 dollars a day if he did not remove his campaign slogan from his bus. The slogan that can be seen upon his campaign bus reads, “Only a Real Indian Can Defeat the Fake Indian.” Along with the slogan itself one would see a picture of Elizabeth Warren wearing a Native-American headdress. For those of you who do not know the slogan that Dr. Shiva has chosen to run with is in reference to his opponent, Elizabeth Warren. We have seen throughout history examples of people being bullied by the Democrats. This time they tried to bully the wrong person.

Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai did not just crumble underneath the weight of the pressure that the city of Cambridge tried to apply to him through intimidation. He answered the challenge of Cambridge when he took them to court on April 22. A couple weeks after he filed a lawsuit against the city in Federal court he had his attorneys file an additional Motion for Preliminary Injunction to force the city to stop charging him 300 dollars a day in fines while the law suit was being settled in court. With the matter at hand escalating to levels that the city did not plan on since they weren't expecting Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai to fight back the city of Cambridge had no choice but to agree to his terms and acknowledge his First Amendment rights.

A full blown trial would have been a PR nightmare for both the city of Cambridge and for Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai's opponent Elizabeth Warren herself. She would have found herself as the main subject of interrogatories, discovery, depositions and cross examination. Such a trial would have more than likely revealed her alleged connection to City Hall official's efforts to silence Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai's free speech. It was his belief that City Hall was waging a political vendetta against him that was being lead by supporters of Elizabeth Warren.

In a statement that was given by Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai he said, “This victory is not just a victory for free speech but a victory for truthful free speech. Our slogan highlights Elizabeth Warren’s lack of integrity. She stole a Harvard faculty position meant for a real and deserving minority.”

It was Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai’s campaign manager Mike Mosca who first received the harassing communication from the city of Cambridge. He had the following to say about Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai, “Dr. Ayyadurai is the Real Deal, the Real Indian. He is the Real Fighter that America needs. He has consistently stood up for everyday Americans. This victory demonstrates that we the people can beat City Hall. His uncompromising stance forced the City to surrender. Had it been any other politician, first, they would never have even taken on this fight; and, second, they would have caved in to the City’s extortion.”

We can not allow ourselves to be silenced anymore. For too long the left and its supporters have been allowed to use their power to quiet our voices and intimidate people into not speaking out against them. It’s time that we the people make our voices be heard and tell the left their time is up. Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai’s victory while a small one will hopefully be the first step of many more that the left will lose to those of us who oppose them.
